

■ Canceled

Folk-rocker Michelle Shocked has canceled for the third and final time. Concert promoters are not rescheduling the show, which was set for tonight at Saltair.

Refunds are available at point of purchase.

The singer must go to England for an undisclosed reason, according to her manager, Bruce Eisenberg. In addition to the Salt Lake show, the European leg of the tour also has been axed.